

Unlock your future with Fees Free

Thinking about learning a trade, taking up industry training or studying at university?

Then you could be eligible for a year of fees-free tertiary study, or two years of fees-free industry-based training.

If you are a New Zealander who is a recent school leaver you may qualify.

You may also qualify if you're an adult and you've done less than half a year of tertiary learning (in any country - not just New Zealand).

1 DECIDING WHAT YOU WANT TO DO

If you're still thinking about what you want to do, what you'll study and where, the Careers New Zealand website has some great information.

› Check it out at careers.govt.nz

2 FIND OUT ABOUT THE COST OF STUDY

If you're going to tertiary study after you leave school, you'll need to figure out how much it's going to cost and how to pay for it.

› It's never too early to start planning, visit studylink.govt.nz

3 CHECK IF YOU CAN GET FEES-FREE STUDY

Whether you're thinking about doing a degree or training for an apprenticeship, if you're studying for the first time you may be able to get fees-free study.

➤ To check, go to feesfree.govt.nz

4 HELP WITH OTHER COSTS

Use our eligibility test to work out what kind of help you could get while studying.

If you can get fees-free study you may not need a Student Loan for your course fees, but you may still need to apply for a loan if you need course-related costs or living costs.

You don't have to pay Student Allowance back.
